ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Sydney Comedy Festival is brought to you by the tireless efforts of: Jorge Menidis, James Declase, Sam Nardo, Jaudyn Cavanagh, Breanna Williamson, Zelda Winestock, Angela Lillyman, Tom Downey, Nikko Malyon, Kate Askins, Katie Rowe, Laura Byrnes, Rebecca Stonehouse-Odman, Natalie Nardo, Mary Eliades, Alex Howarth, Sam Doughty, Rebekah Mann, and all the extended team at Century Venues. Special thanks to Paul Nicolaou and the team at Business Sydney. A massive thank you to Elia, Bill, Nectaria, Lisa and Chris Eliades, ALL of our wonderful artists, their managers, agents, promoters and producers, our event partners and sponsors (buy/drink/watch/listen and read their stuff - its all amazing!), all of the unheralded Front of House, Box Office, Tech and Bar crews across all of the venues, our friends and families, and most of all YOU for enjoying a good laugh with us.

The program of events is curated by Jorge Menidis and James Declase.

Publicity is handled by Belinda Dyer of Kabuku PR.

Graphic design by Sam Doughty and concept design by Sindy Sinn.

Every effort is made to make this program as accurate as possible, however, changes do occur after we have gone to print so please check www.sydneycomedyfest.com.au for up-to-date details.

JORGE MENIDIS
FESTIVAL DIRECTOR

Welcome to the 20th annual Sydney Comedy Festival.

Whilst it may seem amazing that they have let us get away with our tomfoolery for as long as they have, we are back with our 20th festival full of fearless fun and frivolity.

The festival can be described as many things, but I like to see it as a convention of those very special storytellers gathered from all corners of the world, that allows us to marvel in their retelling of our shared life experience.

It is a live kaleidoscope of stories as seen through the eyes and told through the stage craft of those special ones that dissect and amplify the cracks and quirks of our daily lives.

This year, we have of course gone bigger and broader in more venues and parts of Sydney than ever before.

We have also gone outdoors for The Great Laugh in the Park with a free family funday at Tumbalong Park.

So all that remains is for you to grab your tickets before they run out and whilst the big names must not be missed, try your hand on something unknown and be pleasantly surprised.

Come Laugh with us.

Jorge Menidis (Man in the gorilla suit)
Director
Sydney Comedy Festival

JOHN GRAHAM
NSW MINISTER FOR THE ARTS

On behalf of the NSW Government, get ready to laugh.

Any fan of comedy would be making a big mistake by missing this year's festival. Clearly if you're reading this, you're not that foolish.

With the Sydney Comedy Festival hitting the big TWO ZERO, this will be a big one. Twenty years ago, this festival began from humble origins, but now it spans 800 performances across Sydney, travels around the state and attracts the best comedians from near and far.

As a government, we love what the festival does for the NSW nightlife and our visitor economy.

We've been working hard to rebuild our nightlife after a decade of lockouts and lockdowns, and standup comedy is a really important part of the mix. Not only does it give us the comic relief we need to survive the cut and thrust of life, it simply makes our nightlife way more interesting and fun.

To the team at Century, congratulations on getting the Sydney Comedy Festival to the ripe age of 20, Sydney would not be the same without you.

The Hon. John Graham MLC
Special Minister of State
Minister for Jobs and Tourism
Minister for the Arts
Minister for Music and the Night-time Economy
